

The Boy Scout Laws of Camp McKee

Trustworthy - Must not go into other scouts tents without permission or take other scouts belongings.

Loyal - Must attend all merit badge classes and get there on time.

Helpful - Chip in to keep campsite neat and tidy at all times.

Friendly - No fighting, especially over whose chair is whose, or who is sitting next to who.

Courteous - No hitting, teasing, or constant pestering of others

Kind - Please share things when possible.

Obedient - Must do what is told by adult leaders and the senior patrol leader.

Cheerful - Must perform tasks on duty roster without complaining.

Thrifty - Do not beg other scouts or scoutmaster for money for the trading post.

Brave - If you see others not abiding by these laws, please speak up.

Clean - Must not be naked, expose privates, or walk in on others while changing or in shower.

Reverent - Be respectful of others differences and give them space when needed.

In order to protect the safety and enjoyment of all scouts, I, _____ understand that I must abide by the above Scout Laws. Serious or continuous infractions, or overt disregard, for the above laws will result in being sent home from camp.

Scout: _____

By signing this form, I acknowledge that I may be called any time during the week to come pick my child up from camp without refund of camp fees, if they are in violation of the above.

Parent(s): _____

Phone(1): _____

Phone(2): _____

Date: _____